ABSTRACT

This bibliography is divided into three sections. The first section represents a search of Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC), with ED or EJ number, as appropriate, given for each item; the second section represents materials currently held by the Clearinghouse of Resources for Educators of Adults at Syracuse University; the third section represents materials found in the Syracuse University library or most college and university libraries. The latter are recorded with Library of Congress numbers for ease in retrieval. Also, basic publication information is given in each section. Throughout, materials have been categorized alphabetically by title under the following subject headings: accreditation (continuing education unit, special degrees, credits, and certification), administration (management), agencies (organizations and sponsors), communications (dissemination), comparative (international), counseling (personnel and tests), evaluation, foundations (definitions, assumptions, rights, freedoms, philosophy, and theories), futures (planning), history, instruction (methods, materials, facilities, and equipment), learning (psychology and motivation), legislation (policy), lifelong learning (lifelong education and education permanente), programs, program development (needs and objectives), public relations (promotion and marketing), research (problem solving), resources (publications), students (adults, learners, and characteristics), teachers (faculty, program administrators, and staff), and trends. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR EDUCATORS OF ADULTS

A statement on Professional Development for Educators of Adults was prepared by Alexander N. Charters and distributed in advance to participants in the Association of Continuing Higher Education annual meeting in Montreal, Canada, November 6-9, 1977. This bibliography includes materials which may be of use to those who wish to pursue the topic in more detail. Most of these materials were made available for use at the Conference. Corrections, additions and deletions to the list are encouraged.

The bibliography is divided into three sections. The first section (white paper) represents a search of ERIC; the second section (blue paper) represents materials that are currently held by the Clearinghouse of Resources for Educators of Adults at Syracuse University; the third section (yellow paper) represents materials found in the Syracuse University library or most college and university libraries. The latter are recorded with Library of Congress numbers for ease in retrieval.

ERIC citations are available from ERIC Clearinghouse on Career Education at Ohio State University, Center for Vocational Education, 1960 Kenny Road, Columbus, Ohio 43210, phone (614) 486-3655. New York State educators may use the Educational Programs and Studies Information Service (EPSIS), a newly formed unit of the New York State Education Department. EPSIS will provide free microfiche reproduction service and ERIC Pilot Computer Search and Retrieval. For further information write EPSIS, Room 330, State Education Building, Washington Avenue, Albany, New York 12224, telephone number (518) 474-3759.

CREA materials are available on free loan to New York State Educators by writing: Donald P. Holmwood, Program Director, CREA, Room 224 Huntington Hall, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York 13210.

All materials have been categorized under broad subject headings, a system developed by Alexander N. Charters, Professor of Adult Education, Syracuse University. Some items will be found under more than one subject because of the nature of the subject treatment.

We welcome corrections and additions to this list. This bibliography is not all-inclusive, but it does represent an initial attempt. As suggestions are made, the materials will be amended and it is anticipated that these will be available as requests are received.

Assistance for this project has been provided by Mrs. Rachel San Miquel, Dilnawaz Siddiqui and Burton Sisco, graduate assistants in the area of Adult Education, Syracuse University.
